

Mwangi is the Vice President of Development at Community Three. He has over 20 years of experience leading highly complex development projects from concept through construction to stabilization. He uses extensive technical knowledge and project management skills to manage entitlement and development teams, resolving cost and construction challenges in real time to ensure greater process efficiencies while maintaining quality design principles in every Community Three project.

Mwangi brings unique experience to our portfolio of adaptive reuse projects navigating agency approvals, permitting, inspections and project close out phases and coordinating our asset management lease up and capital improvements teams across Community Three's portfolio.

Prior to working for Community Three worked with architecture firm, Torti Gallas and Partners. He is an active member of the DCBIA and co-chairs their Construction and Development Committee. He received a Bachelor of Architecture from the University of Notre Dame and a Master of Architecture from Yale University.
