

REYNOLDS ALLEN

Managing Director

As Managing Director, Reynolds Allen oversees development and investment management activities in EDENS' Mid-Atlantic region, primarily focused on development strategy, execution and operations at Union Market District, the 45-acre mixed-use project in Washington, DC.

Since joining EDENS in 2006, Reynolds has been an integral part of the company's development team, leading ground-up and redevelopment projects across the Southeast and Mid-Atlantic.

In 2010, he expanded his role to Vice President – Development, relocating to Washington, DC, where he leads the EDENS team responsible for the development of Union Market District. He has held positions for EDENS creating new business units, leading special initiatives across the company and directing corporate operations of leasing, legal, property management, events and retail operations across the national portfolio.

Reynolds led the formation of the Union Market Coalition, a non-profit entity providing community services throughout Union Market District, for which he has served as Chair since 2016; he has also served as Chair of the Union Market Infrastructure Corporation since its formation. He has also served as Vice Chair of the EDENS Community Enrichment Foundation and Co-Chair of EDENS Operational Risk Committee.

Reynolds is active with the DC Building Industry Association (DCBIA), serving on the Public Policy & Regulation Committee and the Construction & Development Committee. He joined the DCBIA Board of Directors in 2025.

Reynolds received a Master's of Business Administration from the Darden School of Business at the University of Virginia and Bachelor's degrees in Engineering Sciences and Human & Organizational Development from Vanderbilt University.
